A wonderful Hemodynamic Congress

Come and Love It!

Dear Colleagues,

On behalf of the European Veterinary Emergency and Critical Care Society and the European College of Veterinary Emergency and Critical Care, I would like to invite you to the 17th annual European Veterinary Emergency and Critical Care Congress, in Venice, Italy.

The main theme of the Congress is 'Straight to the heart, the wonderland of hemodynamics'.

Parallel streams for veterinarians (refresher and advanced) and veterinary nurses will offer updates on a large range of topics as: CPR, Arrhythmology, cardiovascular emergencies, sepsis and more! Poster and abstract session will give you some new feature about the most current research.

The Congress will be held in Venice, at 'Palazzo del Casinò'. A charming home, directly overlooking the sea and Venice. To be able to move freely and explore this marvellous city, we will provide to the attendants tickets for different means of transport within the city.

Il Bel Paese

The word 'Italia' derives from the Italian 'Italoï' word, a term which the Greeks designated the vituli (or Viteli), a people living in the tip of the peninsula, the region south of present Catanzaro. Later the name was extended to the entire southern part of the Country.

In Italy there are many different and particular place to visit, starting from the big cities up to the small remote villages in the middle of the Tuscany's countryside or on the coast of Sicily.

The Venetian Lagoon is one of the most romantic and evocative places in the world, a priceless treasure. At the heart of this legendary Province is the Serenissima or Most Serene Republic, with its characteristic bridges spanning the canals navigated by gondolas, its monuments, piazzas, narrow lanes and silent waters.

Venice is actually a group of fascinating small islands, where art and history combine with old trades and the beauty of the sea. The fascinating island is composed of many paths traversing the green scenery, along with peaceful rivers that pass through small towns rich in history and fabulous villas.

Many opportunities for fun abound as well: outdoor sports, nightlife in the many glamorous night spots, and shopping and the unique famous in the world, glass-maker of Murano.

Il bel paese ch'Appennin parte e 'l mar circonda e l'Alpe (Francesco Petrarca).
